DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-49 and 56 drawn to scheduling one or more processors, classified in class 709, subclass 100.
 - II. Claims 50-51 and 54-55 drawn to interrupting a periodic process, classified in class 710, subclass 260.
 - III. Claims 52-53 and 57 drawn to converting each of the asynchronous processes, classified in class 711, subclass 202.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I-III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention I has separate utility such as lacking interrupting a periodic process and converting each of the asynchronous processes, particulars. Invention II has separate utility such as lacking converting each of the asynchronous processes, particulars. See MPEP 806.05(d).
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2156

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for the other groups, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
